DUTY TO DISCLOSE. This proposal must be completed, dated and signed by the proposer. When answering the questions on this form, you must be honest and truthful. You have a duty under law to tell us anything known to you which is material to the questions asked as those answers will guide us in deciding whether to insure you or anyone else to be insured under the policy and on what terms. If you are in doubt as to whether a fact is relevant you should state it. Your duty to make full and frank disclosure occurs: (1) at the time of proposing for insurance. (2) during the currency of the policy, if there are any changes or variation in the information given and (3) at each renewal.

FAILURE TO DISCLOSE. If you do not comply with these duties and answer our questions honestly, the Company will be at liberty to treat your Policy as if it never existed and refuse to pay any claims you make under it.

DISCLAIMER: The liability of the Company does not commence until the acceptance of the proposal has been formally acknowledged by the Company and a premium or deposit has been paid, except as provided by an Official Cover Note issued by the Company.

THE PRIVACY AND SECURITY OF YOUR DATA IS IMPORTANT TO US. Your information is used to process your request for products and services and may be shared with non-affiliates for analysis, market research and marketing purposes, as allowed by law. We may also be required to share your information with our Regulators, law enforcement agencies and other authorities to prevent and detect crime and comply with legal obligations. Where feasible, data is provided in aggregated form to ensure anonymity. Any entity with which we share information about you for the above purposes is contractually required to apply the same levels of protection, security and confidentiality we apply.

I/We declare that the above answers are true and that all particulars affecting the assessment of the risk have been disclosed.
